TERSELY TOLD LOCAL ITEMS...

Attorney Bert Fish, of DeLand, was in the city yesterday on legal business.

All the little folks in town will soon be happy, as a circus is scheduled to come here between Christmas and New Years.

Real estate dealers report that they have several large deals on hand which they hope to close during the next few days.

A "Breezy Time," will make its appearance at the Opera House tomorrow evening, and the indications are that they will have a large house.

Yesterday afternoon trains were one of the heaviest so far this season. By actual count, fifty-four people entered within the portals of Daytona.

The condition of Herbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mills, is improving. It will be about three weeks before the little fellow will be entirely out of danger.

The volume of business at the express office is increasing rapidly. The force has as much or more than they can do, and they are kept busy until late in the evening.

It is quite probable that the Halifax Rifles will resume drills now that satisfactory arrangements have been made with the County Commissioners for the rental of the Armory.

The County Commissioners of St.
 John's County, have decided to build a new court house at a cost of $35,000.
 Work on the new structure will commence before next spring.

A competitive examination to fill vacancies now existing in the position of assistant to the State Health Officer, will be held at the office of the State Board of Health in Jacksonville on December 20.

The Baptist Bazaar and Oyster Supper will take place this evening at the Armory. The ladies in charge are making preparations for a successful affair, and it is to be hoped that the weather will be favorable.

The work of laying a new concrete walk on Palmetto avenue has commenced. The walk will pass the Congregational church, the residence of Postmaster Jolley and others.

Queen Esther Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star has been organized in Miami, and the foundation laid for what promises to be a strong and influential secret and benevolent society. Daytona has had a chapter for some years, and it is in a flourishing condition.

MC FADDEN LOST HIS CASE.
Mayor Smith Decides in Favor of the City—Will Make an Appeal to Higher Court.
 Coming up before Mayor Smith in the city court yesterday afternoon was the case of R. T. McFadden, who was arrested a week ago on the charge of violating the ordinance requiring persons selling shells, curios, etc., on the water front east of Beach street, to pay a license of $250.
 The verdict of the Mayor was in favor of the city, but McFadden will appeal the case to the circuit court, and hence he is out on bond.
 The lawyers for both the plaintiff and defendant had a heated argument over the question as to the validity of the ordinance.
 T. E. Fitzgerald and Landis & Fish represented the city, while Judge Isaac Stewart, of Stewart & Bly, looked after the interests of the defendant.

Walking today was somewhat disagreeable, owing to the rain of Thursday night.

McCoy Brothers have completed the improvements to the steamer "Uncle Sam," and the boat will shortly be put into use. She will be used for the To-moka trip and the run between here and New Smyrna on alternate days. A buffet service will be run in connection with the boat.

Church Notices.
 Pastors of the various churches who desire to have their announcements printed in the Daily News each Saturday afternoon, will confer a favor on the management if all church notices are left at this office before 10 a. m. each Saturday.

Get Your Xmas Advertising Ready.
 Christmas is fast approaching, and the wise merchant, will now begin to think of holiday advertising. The Daily News as a medium for reaching the people, cannot be excelled. The paper is printed every afternoon but Sunday, and the and the advertiser who has an eye to business, will therefore use the columns of the Daily News.
 If you are not a subscriber to the paper, you should be. The news of the town is chronicled while the blossom is on it.
 The paper is delivered by carrier boys to any portion of the city and suburbs for 15 cents a week.

Not Overstudied.

A Large Fraction.
 "I see that Johnstone is advertising his goods for sale for a 'fraction of their real value.'"
 "Yes, about eight-fifths, I think."

...Wanted...
 1,000 Reporters!
 The Daily News wants 1,000 reporters. No, this is not a joke. We really want them, and we won't be happy until we get them.
 In other words, The Daily News wants every person, male and female, 18 years of age and over, in Daytona and its environs, to get on the staff of the paper. The Daily News wants every scrap of local news that is worth printing to appear in its columns. The best way to get it is to ask the people who know about the news to send it to the paper.
 So if you know of anything that has happened, or is about to happen, tell the City Editor about it or write to him.
 Let every man and woman, youth and maid in and around Daytona become a reporter The Daily News.
